You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Credit Risk/Default Risk. The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of security which the borrower issued.

Reinvestment Risk. The risk associated with the possibility of having lower returns or earnings when maturing funds or the interest earnings of funds are reinvested.

Interest Rate Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in interest rates.

Inflation Risk. The risk that the value of investment is lower than the rate by which the prices of goods and services go up.

Liquidity Risk. The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a loss.

Market/Price Risk. This is the possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in market prices of securities (e.g., bonds and equities).

- The Fund implements a risk management policy that applies the principles of Value-at-Risk (VaR) and Modified Duration. VaR is defined as a statistical estimate of the amount of loss that an "open" risk position is unlikely to exceed during a given time period with a given level of confidence. Modified Duration is a means to measure the change in the value of a security in response to a change in interest rates. The formula is used to determine the effect that a 1% change in interest rates will have on the price of the bond.
- The Fund's investment outlets have been subject to proper screening and evaluation in accordance with LANDBANK –TBG's accreditation process and minimum regulatory requirements.

REDEMPTION CONDITIONS

Surrender of the Confirmation of Participation or submission of a Letter of Instruction and such other reasonable requirements which the TRUSTEE may require; subject to penalty if redeemed before the minimum holding period.

FUND MANAGER'S REPORT

The opening quarter of 2024 turned out to be quite a rough ride with volatility remaining to be the theme. The overriding concern has been and remains to be U.S. inflation, which would prove to be stickier than initially thought. As things would turn out, U.S. consumer prices re-accelerated in February and March, providing strong impetus for the upward bias in interest rates. This gives the impression that the Federal Reserve may have concluded its rate hiking cycle a little bit prematurely. The inflection point, in our view, would be when U.S. inflation falls below the psychological 3% barrier. However, the U.S. economy is churning out economic data that are predominantly strong which begs the question: is U.S. monetary policy just half-baked and are further rate hikes necessary? With this overhanging uncertainty, volatility should persist, perhaps until the end of the first half. And if inflation continues to rise, we may be in for another extremely challenging year where the Federal Reserve again, would have failed in its assessment of inflation and appropriate monetary policy.

VIEW STRATEGY

There could be a little more upside for interest rates but we are very near the peak. With the current flat shape of the yield curve, it would not be bad to park funds in the short end. But if there are offers for the 10-year paper of 7% and above, take it.

UNIT INVESTMENT TRUST FUND

ABOUT THE LANDBANK BOND FUND'S BENCHMARK

Weighted average percentage change in the following indices:

- a. Bloomberg Philippine Sovereign Bond Index 1 to 5 Years (BPHIL15) – 95%
- b. 1-month BVAL – 5%

or in the absence of any one of the indices, any relevant and industry-accepted benchmark.

However, this should not be construed as a guarantee of yield.

Description of the Benchmark

- a. Bloomberg Philippine Sovereign Bond Index 1 to 5 Years (BPHIL15)

The Bloomberg Philippine Sovereign Bond Index 1 to 5 Years (BPHIL15) is a rules-based market-value weighted index engineered to measure the fixed-rate local currency securities publicly issued by the Philippines, including retail securities. To be included in the index a security must have a minimum par amount of PhP3 Billion.

Bloomberg's BVAL Evaluated Pricing Service provides transparent and highly defensible prices for fixed-income securities across the liquidity spectrum. The key to BVAL's methodology is its real-time access to market observations from a wealth of contributed sources. This accumulated mass of market data is the main driver of an innovative and quantitative approach that first corroborates market levels on actively traded bonds and then derives a comparable relative value price for those securities that are less liquid.

This methodology aligns with Bloomberg's trusted capabilities as the financial industry's leading analytics platform and source of fixed-income information. In addition to sophisticated algorithms that generate evaluated prices, the BVAL methodology assigns a BVAL Score based on the amount and consistency of market data used in our models.

- b. 1-month BVAL

The shortest benchmark tenor. Based on the one-month prevailing market rate that comprises the front-end of the Philippine yield curve.

Key Characteristics

- a. Bloomberg Philippine Sovereign Bond Index 1 to 5 Years (BPHIL15)

Comprised by a basket of peso-denominated government securities with remaining tenors of 1 up to 5 years.

- b. The 1-month BVAL reflects the current yield on the 30-day fixed income security.

Relation to the fund's objectives/investment strategies

The Fund aims to generate a steady stream of income mainly through investments in a diversified portfolio of peso-denominated fixed-income securities while the Bloomberg Philippine Sovereign Bond Index 1 to 5 Years (BPHIL15), similarly, is a basket of securities with remaining maturities of 1 up to 5 years, approximating the rate of return of the fund.

To manage liquidity risk, the fund lodges 5% of net assets in 30-day placements. As such, the weighted average of the Bloomberg Philippine Sovereign Bond Index 1 to 5 Years (BPHIL15) (95%) and the 1-month BVAL (5%) is the most appropriate benchmark for the fund's performance.

Change in the Benchmark

The amendment to the Fund's benchmark was approved by the LANDBANK Board of Directors on 31 August 2023 through Resolution No. 23-558.
