

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 007

Series of 2025

REVISED PEOPLE'S FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (PFOI) MANUAL (Amendment to Executive Order No. 003, s. 2024)

Pursuant to the LANDBANK Board of Directors Resolution No. 25-053 dated 30 January 2025, the amendment to the PFOI Manual is hereby issued.

The PFOI Manual shall serve as guide to all Bank employees and requesting parties in handling and processing of requests as well as appropriate disclosure of information as allowed by laws, rules and regulations while ensuring protection of privacy of the Bank and its stakeholders. The PFOI Manual is in compliance with the Malacañang Executive Order No. 02, series of 2016 and the Presidential Communications Operations Office issuances.

All other provisions of the Revised PFOI Manual per Executive Order No. 003, series of 2024 other than the attached Annex 2.2 – LANDBANK Directory and Annex 5.1 – Office of Next Higher in Authority shall continue to be followed.

For strict compliance.

CHAPTER 1

OVERVIEW

0101 PURPOSE AND COVERAGE OF THE MANUAL

1. The Constitution recognizes the fundamental role of free and open exchange of information in a democracy, meant to enhance transparency and accountability in government official acts, transactions, or decisions. Section 28, Article II of the 1987 Constitution enunciates that the State adopts and implements a policy of full public disclosure of all its transactions involving public interest, subject to reasonable conditions prescribed by law. Section 7, Article III of the Constitution guarantees the right of the people to information on matters of public concern.
2. Sections 3 and 7, Article III of the Constitution as well as laws, rules and regulations, and jurisprudence also strengthen the fundamental human right of privacy and of communication while ensuring the free flow of information to promote innovation and growth.
3. In recognition of the urgent need to operationalize these Constitutional provisions, the President of the Philippines issued EO No. 2, Series of 2016, or the law on the PFOI on July 23, 2016.
4. This Manual is issued pursuant to EO No. 2, Series of 2016. The Bank ensures full support on the transparency, disclosure, and accountability in government official acts, transactions, and decisions without compromising the credibility and reputation as well as public confidence in the Bank. The Bank also warrants the protection of its privacy and that of its stakeholders in accordance with the Constitution, laws, rules and regulations. This Manual shall cover all requests for information given to the Bank by the requesting parties.
5. This Manual shall not cover requests for information:
 - a. By clients/customers/investors of the Bank on matters relevant and material to their accounts and investments;
 - b. By persons or entities with contracts or dealings with the Bank on information that they are legally entitled to have access to; and
 - c. By the public on information made known to them and other matters relevant thereto (e.g., products and services).

0102 UPDATING AND MAINTENANCE OF THE MANUAL

1. An annual review of the Manual or as necessary shall be conducted, in coordination with LSG, to ensure that implementation policies and procedures are up-to-date and compliant with the policies/issuances of the Bank and regulatory agencies (e.g., Presidential Communications Operations Office).
2. Any addenda/revision in the Manual shall be subject to review of SMD prior to endorsement and sign-off by the Technical Working Group and approval by the BOD, upon recommendation of ManCom, except for the updating of LANDBANK Directory and Office of Next Higher in Authority.

CHAPTER 2

FILING AND PROCESSING OF REQUEST

0201 GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. The requesting party shall submit a written request to the IC of the Receiving Unit and/or accomplish the RRD (Exhibit 2.1) available in the Bank's website.
 - a. The request shall state the name and contact information of the requesting party, provide valid proof of his identification through the submission of at least one (1) photo-bearing Identification Document (ID, Annex 2.1), reasonably describe the information requested, and the reason for, or purpose of, the request for information.
 - b. In case of request via a representative, the IC shall:
 - 1) Require submission of an authorization letter from the requesting party and presentation of at least one (1) original valid photo-bearing ID of both the requesting party and his representative.
 - 2) Immediately refuse to accept the request if the requirements under item 0201.1a are not included in the authorization letter.
 - c. Whenever necessary, the IC may accept other IDs not enumerated in Annex 2.1, provided that it shall not be the sole means of identification.
2. As much as possible, the RRD shall be accomplished in the presence of the IC. If necessary, the IC shall assist the requesting party in filling out the said form. The RRD may be dispensed with if the required information stated in the written request and all the requirements are submitted, pursuant to item 0201.1a.
2. The LBP Directory (Annex 2.2) contains the location and contact information of all Bank units where the written request for information may be submitted.
3. If the Receiving Unit is the information owner or unit in custody/possession of the requested information, it shall perform all the functions of the Information Owner in this Manual and can approve or deny the request for information.

PEOPLE'S FREEDOM OF INFORMATION MANUAL

Filing and Processing of Request

4. If the Receiving Unit is located in the same region/vicinity/area as the Information Owner, the requesting party shall be referred/accompanied by the IC of the Receiving Unit to the Information Owner, otherwise, follow the provisions under Item 6.
5. Where the Bank is not the Information Owner:
 - a. All requests for information that is not in the possession of the Bank shall be immediately endorsed to CuCD to facilitate referral to the appropriate government agency within three (3) working days from receipt of requests and shall be considered as the "First Referral".
 - b. If a government agency erroneously referred the request to the Bank, the same may be subsequently referred to another government agency and same shall be considered as the "Second Referral" and another fresh period shall apply. If in case the erroneous referral is already the "Second Referral" and the Bank is not the appropriate agency to provide the requested information, CuCD shall deny the said request and properly notify the requesting party.
 - c. CuCD shall ensure acknowledgement via written or email by the FOI Receiving Officer of the government agency where the request was referred.
 - d. The requesting party shall be notified of the referral and must be provided with the reason or rationale thereof and contact details of the government office where the request was referred. CuCD may refer/confirm the agency details which has control and custody of the requested information at www.foi.gov.ph.
 - e. In all phases of the referral, the requesting party shall be informed in writing or email of the status of his/her request.
6. IC of the Receiving Unit (other than the information owner or unit in custody/possession of the requested information) shall:
 - a. Provide reasonable assistance free of charge to the requesting party and check completeness of data required in the written request and RRDI.
 - b. Indicate the date of receipt, name and sign on the written request and/or RRDI.
 - c. Inform the requesting party that the Bank may charge reasonable fee to reimburse actual costs spent by the Bank in providing the information for every request granted, as follows:
 - Printed copy – PHP 3.00 per page

PEOPLE'S FREEDOM OF INFORMATION MANUAL

Filing and Processing of Request

- Material costs – Actual cost of items such as CD ROMs, flash drives, etc., will be charged for request for information in electronic format.
- d. Submit the written request and RRDI to the Head of the Receiving Unit.
 - e. Provide the requesting party with a duly stamped photocopy of the written request and/or RRDI to acknowledge receipt of the request.
 - f. Inform the requesting party to wait for the Bank's written response within 15 working days or for such period of time allowed in the Manual.
 - g. The Head of the Receiving Unit shall refer the written request and RRDI to CuCD using the memo referral (Exhibit 2.3).
7. CuCD shall be the central monitoring unit which shall track all written requests for information and the actions taken on the requests by the different units of the Bank. It shall implement a records management and tracking system that contains accurate and complete records of requests for information and actions taken by the Bank on said requests.
 8. All requests for information shall be referred to CuCD using the memo referral (Exhibit 2.3) for verification if with previous similar request from the same requesting party, regardless whether it has been granted or denied.
 9. CuCD shall check from its database if a substantially similar or identical request involving the same information from the same requesting party has previously been received and granted or denied. If so, CuCD shall deny the request and send a letter of denial (Exhibit 2.4) to the requesting party, copy furnished the Information Owner, as applicable.
 10. If no similar request involving the same information from the same requesting party has been previously received by the Bank, CuCD shall refer the request to or reply to the referral of the Information Owner using the memo referral (Exhibit 2.5).
 11. The Information Owner shall evaluate the request and check if the requesting party is entitled to the requested information from the Exception List (Annex 2.3).
 12. The Exception List shall be updated as often as may be necessary by LSG.

PEOPLE'S FREEDOM OF INFORMATION MANUAL

Filing and Processing of Request

13. The Information Owner shall advise CuCD (Exhibit 2.6) if the period of time to respond should be extended because the information requested requires extensive search of the Bank's records facilities, examination of voluminous records, or because of the occurrence of fortuitous events or other analogous circumstances. CuCD shall then notify the requesting party of the extension (Exhibit 2.7) which shall not go beyond 20 working days, unless exceptional circumstances warrant a longer period. The notice shall state the reason/s for extension.
14. The Head of the Information Owner or his/her duly authorized representative shall act as the Decision Maker and shall be responsible for all requests for information referred to his/her Units particularly on the following:
 - a. Evaluate the requests received, ensuring that request has a declared, specified, and legitimate purpose not contrary to morals or public policy;
 - b. Grant/denial of such requests and/or release information in whole or in part;
 - c. Consider the mosaic effect of data aggregation; and
 - d. Refer the request to LSG for opinion/clearance if:
 - 1) It determines that the request can or cannot be granted pursuant to EO No 078, Series of 2022.
 - 2) It cannot determine whether the request can be granted or denied.
 - 3) The request falls under the exception list.
15. If LSG determines that the information may not be released, it shall issue a written opinion to the Information Owner. If in its opinion the information may be released, LSG shall issue clearance to the Information Owner, coursed thru the Sector Head of the Information Owner which shall approve the release of the information pursuant to EO No. 078, Series of 2022.
16. No written request for information shall be denied by the Information Owner unless the disclosure of the information to the requesting party is prohibited under the Exception List and/or is not allowed under the Constitution, laws, rules and regulations or jurisprudence, or if the information requested has been the subject of a previous and substantially similar or identical request from the same requesting party, or if the reason for the request is contrary to law and existing rules and regulations.
17. TMG shall be responsible for the maintenance of the PFOI automated database system.

18. A logbook shall be maintained by the Receiving Unit to record the written request of the requesting party. The retention period of the said logbook shall be two (2) years after date of last entry as per Records Disposition Schedule-Communication/Correspondence-Routine. The column headers shall be as follows:
 - a. Date of Receipt of Written Request
 - b. Name of the Requesting Party
 - c. Nature and Purpose of Request
 - d. Remarks

19. The retention period shall be two (2) years after the transaction has been closed whether successful or denied for FOI requests with personal and sensitive personal information that includes, but are not limited to, the following:
 - a. FOI request forms containing personal and sensitive personal information;
 - b. Valid proof of identification (e.g., Government-issued IDs, school-ID, etc.);
 - c. Personal address; and
 - d. Personal contact numbers.

20. Disposal of Personal Information
 - a. Disposal of personal information shall be in accordance with the National Archives of the Philippines Act of 2007.
 - b. Personal information shall be disposed of or discarded in a secure manner that would prevent further processing, unauthorized access, or disclosure to any other party or the public, or prejudice the interests of the data subjects.

21. The PFOI process flow is shown in Annex 2.4.

CHAPTER 3

GRANT OF THE REQUEST, PAYMENT OF APPLICABLE FEES, AND RELEASE OF INFORMATION

0301 GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. The Information Owner shall grant the request if the disclosure of the information requested is allowed under the Constitution, law, rules and regulations, jurisprudence; or the Exception List; or is not the subject of a previous and substantially similar or identical request from the same requesting party; or if the reason for the request is not contrary to law, existing rules and regulations.
2. The Bank shall afford full protection to the right to privacy of the individual, its employees and officers when providing access to information and public and official records, as follows:
 - a. The Information Owner shall ensure that personal and sensitive personal information in its custody or under its control is disclosed only as permitted by existing law, rules or regulations subject to the Bank's policies and procedures;
 - b. The Information Owner shall protect personal information in its custody or under its control by making reasonable security arrangements against leaks or premature disclosure of personal information;
 - c. All Bank officers or employees who will have access, may it be authorized, to personal information in the custody of the Bank, shall not disclose that information except as authorized by existing laws, subject to the Bank's policies and procedures.
3. The Information Owner shall be responsible for redacting the following information and require the Requesting Party to sign on the RRD1 or submit a separate undertaking for non-disclosure/sharing of information in accordance with the manner stated herein before granting the said information to the requesting party.
 - a. Information not necessary to be disclosed or prohibited to be disclosed under existing laws, rules and regulations such as sensitive personal information. Said information may only be disclosed, if necessary, to the declared, specified and legitimate purpose of the requesting party.
 - b. All information under the inventory of exceptions, pursuant to EO No. 02, s. 2016 which are in the document to be released shall be redacted.

PEOPLE'S FREEDOM OF INFORMATION MANUAL

Grant of the Request, Payment of Applicable Fees, and Release of Information

- c. Manner of Redacting
 - 1) Physical Documents – Concerned information may be redacted using redaction tape or a black marker pen and must be scanned and checked to ensure that it is unreadable.
 - 2) Digital Documents – The Redaction Officer shall ensure that the redacted information can never be recovered by the requesting party using pertinent application tools to be provided by TMG. Copy of the digital documents and the information that need to be redacted shall be sent to CuCD.
4. Extraction of Information as an alternative to redaction, where a document or file contain information which are included in the inventory of exceptions and a part or parts thereof are disclosable to the public, and redaction is deemed difficult, the information shall be extracted by reproducing it in a separate file or by photocopying a part or parts of a set of data.
5. The Information Owner shall inform CuCD in writing that the requested information is allowed to be released.
6. CuCD shall notify the requesting party in writing (Exhibit 3.1) that his request is granted and advise him to pay the applicable fee. It shall also advise the requesting party that the information shall be released by and at the office of the Information Owner after the requesting party has paid the fees to the nearest Branch.
7. The nearest Branch shall notify (Exhibit 3.2) CuCD and Information Owner that the fees have been paid.

Note: Items 5, 6 and 7 shall be applicable if the Receiving Unit is not the Information Owner or information owner or unit in custody/possession of the requested information.
8. The Information Owner shall release the requested information to the requesting party or his authorized representative either personally, by registered mail, by electronic mail, or any other means of communication acceptable to the requesting party. In all cases, the release must be evidenced either by acknowledgement of receipt or proof of transmittal.
9. The Information Owner shall notify (Exhibit 3.3) CuCD that the information has been released to the requesting party.

CHAPTER 4

DENIAL OF THE REQUEST

0401 GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. The Information Owner shall deny the request if the disclosure of the information requested is not allowed under the Constitution, law, rules and regulations, jurisprudence; or the Exception List; or is the subject of a previous and substantially similar or identical request from the same requesting party; or if the reason for the request is contrary to law, existing rules and regulations; or if the request is vexatious and abuse in invoking rights
2. The Information owner shall consider all relevant circumstances in determining whether or not a request is vexatious. The following may be taken into consideration in evaluating requests:
 - a. language of the request;
 - b. burden on the Bank;
 - c. purpose, motive, or intention for making the request;
 - d. value of the requested information; or
 - e. history and context of the request.
3. A request is presumed to be vexatious if it involves:
 - a. Frequent or overlapping requests - occurs when a requesting party submits a correspondence involving the same issue frequently, or submits the same request over a period of time before the Bank can have the opportunity to address the earlier request.
 - b. Personal Grudges – occurs when the requesting party submits a correspondence on a particular Bank officer or employee against whom he/she has some personal enmity; or the said request is made to express hatred to a particular officer or employee.
 - c. Unfounded Accusations – occurs when the request makes completely unsubstantiated accusations against the public authority or specific employees.
 - d. Unreasonably complex request – requests involving more than one subject matter which can only be processed within 35 working days or more. A valid reason/explanation should always be provided by the requesting party.
 - e. Reprocessed data – means that the data was already proactively disclosed or the data was requested and was previously disclosed.

PEOPLE'S FREEDOM OF INFORMATION MANUAL

Denial of the Request

- f. Premature requests or requests that are yet to be processed by the Bank – means information which will soon be published, or the disclosure of which would be premature in relation to a planned announcement or publication.
 - g. All other requests that are meant to harass, embarrass or put into actual or imminent danger the life or property of the Bank, its officers or employees.
4. In case of doubt as to the nature of the request, the Information owner may grant the requesting party the opportunity to clarify and/or modify the request but not immediately deny the same but shall extend advice or assistance so that a valid request may be filed.
5. If the request still falls under the presumptions enumerated under number 3 above, despite clarification and extension of reasonable assistance by the Information owner to the requesting party, the Information owner may deny the request, clearly setting forth the ground/s for denial and the circumstance/s on which the denial is based.
6. Vexatious requests may be appealed in accordance with the appeals process provided in this manual under Chapter 5 - Appeal of the Denial of the Request for Information.
7. The Information Owner shall send a written notice of denial (Exhibit 4.2) to the requesting party or his authorized representative within the period to respond, stating the reasons and/or circumstances on which the denial is based and inform CuCD in writing of such denial (Exhibit 4.1).
8. The notice shall be sent either personally, by registered mail, by electronic mail, or any other means of communication. In all cases, the notice must be evidenced either by acknowledgement of receipt or proof of transmittal.

CHAPTER 5

APPEAL OF THE DENIAL OF THE REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

0501 GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. Denial of the request for information may be appealed in writing by the requesting party to the person or office next higher in authority (Annex 5.1) to the Information Owner within 15 working days from the receipt of the notice of denial or from the lapse of the relevant period to respond to the request.
2. The appeal shall be decided by the person or office next higher in authority to the Information Owner within 30 working days from the filing of the appeal. Failure to decide within the afore-stated period shall be deemed a denial of the appeal.
3. If the appeal is denied, the requesting party may file the appropriate case in the proper courts in accordance with the Rules of Court.
